2020 AGENDA

DAY ONE

7:45  Conference Check-In & Continental Breakfast

8:30  Developments in EEO Law
  Update of Supreme Court cases and the most significant appellate court and trial court cases and their application and implications for employment practices and litigation in key substantive and procedural areas, including race, sex, color, religion, national origin, gender and pregnancy discrimination, the ADEA, damages, injunctive relief, and other cutting-edge areas.
  Chicago - Joe Schmitt
  Washington, DC - Carson Sullivan
  Las Vegas - Jeff Wohl

10:45  Refreshment Break

11:00  Retaliation and Whistleblowing Update
  Determining “protected activity,” understanding the expanded concept of “adverse action,” how to negate an inference of “causation,” third party retaliation, retaliatory harassment, in-house counsel or compliance officer as whistleblower, what constitutes “unreasonable opposition,” the rise in “cybersecurity” whistleblowing and increased regulatory enforcement, plus the continued surge in whistleblower, Dodd Frank and Sarbanes-Oxley issues, including the expanded rights and remedies of the would-be whistleblower, expansion of Sarbanes-Oxley, and best practices to help avoid and/or minimize liability.
  Chicago - Jenny Goltz
  Washington, DC - Greg Keating
  Las Vegas - Jason Geller

12:30  Luncheon (Hosted by NELI)

1:30  Wage and Hour & Misclassification Issues
  Discussion of recent decisions, DOL initiatives and regulations (including revisions to the “white collar” exemptions), new developments involving joint employers, contingent workers and other non-covered workers, exemption and misclassification decisions, wage and rate calculation issues, compensable time in our increasingly technology-centered workplace, and emerging case law on actual or constructive knowledge of time worked required to prove a claim.
  Chicago - Samantha Rollins
  Washington, DC - Shannon Farmer
  Las Vegas - Ellen Boshkoff

3:00  Refreshment Break

3:15  The e-Workplace:
  Privacy Issues and Cyber Security
  Covering the expanding set of technology platforms and apps that keep challenging employers on how to restrict, monitor, scrutinize and/or preserve employees’ and applicants’ technology usage that impacts employees’ privacy rights and employers’ information security programs, including the use of “Shadow IT,” “Cloud” technology, social media and various communications/collaboration platforms such as Slack and their implications for an employer’s BYOD program and potential discoverability in legal proceedings. Also, discussion of employers’ rights to limit employees’ social media posts and the ability to discipline for such posts, prohibitions on forced disclosure of personal login credentials, proactive steps employers can take to minimize risks of data theft, and compliance with state privacy and security statutes and regulations, including those restricting the use of employees’ biometric information.
  Chicago & Las Vegas - Adam Forman
  Washington, DC - Bob Brownstone

5:00  Adjourn

DAY TWO

7:30  Continental Breakfast

8:00  Ethics in Labor and Employment Law
  Annual update on cutting edge ethics issues, including conflicts of interest, attorney-client privilege and waiver, ex parte access to current and former managers and employees, pre-trial investigations, employee confidential communications using employer-provided computers and email, in-house counsel ethical issues, improper acquisition and inadvertent disclosure of information and documents, access to social media information, settlement and negotiations, and court enforcement of professionalism and civility codes.
  Chicago & Las Vegas - Dennis Duffy or Shareef Farag
  Washington, DC - Dennis Duffy

9:00  Fast-Breaking Developments on “Reasonable Accommodation”
  Discussion of the latest and hottest cases on practical reasonable accommodation issues, including important new cases on the meaning of “reasonable,” what technically triggers the duty to interact, what supervisors and HR personnel should be trained to actually say and document in response to employee requests, what to do if the employee fails to cooperate in the reasonable accommodation discussion, what a supervisor can disclose to co-workers about an accommodation, and particular accommodation requests such as leave (including repeated leave extensions), change of supervisors, noncompetitive reassignment, light duty, work-at-home, shift changes, and a perfume/irritant-free workplace.
  All Locations - David Fram

10:30  Refreshment Break

10:45  FMLA Compliance and Best Practices
  What’s new in terms of DOL opinion letters, including new developments regarding coordination of paid and FMLA leave, practical issues regarding the effect of leave on the measurement of performance goals and handling requests to work after being approved for leave, training supervisors not to say foolish things, proposed changes to DOL forms, special issues when leave is requested to care for a family member, how to use notice requirements and re-certifications to combat intermittent leave abuse, and what to do when you suspect fraudulent use of leave.
  Chicago - Tracy Billows
  Washington, DC - Megan Norris
  Las Vegas - Ellen McLaughlin

12:00  Current NLRA Trends
  Covering recent developments at the NLRB and what is likely to occur, including analysis of several important Board decisions overturning rulings from the Board appointed by President Obama, new initiatives announced by NLRB General Counsel Peter Robb, and the Board’s rulemaking on joint employer standards, union representation issues, and other potential topics and critical court decisions affecting traditional labor law.
  Chicago - Curt Kirschner
  Washington, DC - Denise Keyser
  Las Vegas - Steve Suflias
